

National Native American Purchasing Association

The association is organized for charitable and education purposes and qualifies as exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. More specifically, such purposes include, but are not limited to: the furtherance, preservation and education of the public with respect to purchasing, especially as it relates to the history and culture of the Indian Tribes of the United States. In addition, the Association is organized to promote and stimulate ongoing cooperation, communication, education and resource development among Native American Organizations, IHS and the BIA. The association provides opportunities for Native Organizations to participate and learn about fair, open, equal, loyal and competitive purchasing practices within the profession.

The National Native American Purchasing Association would like to take this opportunity to Thank You for your participation in the conference.
